DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-4 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

More specifically, in claim 1-4, the presence of the word "type" renders these claims indefinite because the addition of the word "type" to an otherwise definite expression extends the scope of the expression so as to render it indefinite. Accordingly, the metes and bounds for which patent protection is being sought are not clear. Also, in claims 1 and 3 the usage of the "i.e." is indefinite because it is not clear if these limitations are exemplary or part of the claim.

4. Claim 9 provides for the use of the hollow fiber membrane, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kawata et al., 5,340,480 (Kawata).

Kawata discloses polysulfone permeable hollow fiber membrane of the type contemplated by applicants comprising a polysulfone resin and a hydrophilic polymer, per claim 1. See entire document, and for example, abstract. In addition, Kawata discloses that the hydrophilic polymer can be polyvinylpyrrolidone and is present in an amount of 1-8% by weight, as required by present claims 4-5. See column 10, lines 40-53. Regarding claims 2-3, Kawata discloses that his membranes have a dense skin layer, a supporting layer and the core layer, wherein each layer has a depth within the instant claimed range. See column 13, lines 23-36. Regarding claims 6 and 7, the membrane of Kawata is substantially similar to that of the instant invention, thus it is the examiner's position that the properties of the prior art would be substantially similar as well in the absence of factual evidence to the contrary. Applicants are invited to provide such evidence. Regarding claim 8, it would have been an obvious expedient to the skilled artisan to crosslink the hydrophilic polymer to adjust the permeability of the membrane, and for insolubility purposes.

Therefore, the teachings of Kawata would have rendered obvious the invention as claimed in present claims 1-8.

No claims are allowed.
